DOMINION DAY CELEBRATION WILL ATTRACT MANY

Three Baseball Teams in Tournament
—Holiday Program Will Provide
Variety of Entertainment

No Dominion Day celebration has been held in Bassano in previous years equal in variety and entertainment value to that which is prepared for the 1930 celebration on Tuesday, July 1st.

From the children's sports in the morning till the big dance at night, the whole day will be filled with various sports, games, competitions, horse races and amusements for old and young.

Three teams will play in the baseball tournament—Queenstown, Bow Slope, and Bassano. Bow Slope and Bassano play in the first game.

A good lot of horse races will provide plenty of interest and excitement for lovers of this sport. There will also be Indian horse races, a Roman race, barrel race, and relay race.

The list of athletic events will prove interesting for the spectators, and competition is expected to be keen.

The Indians always take an active part in the racing and singing events, and offer strong competition for the white men.

Charivari games of great variety—games where the player can test his skill with throwing the baseball, the dart, or ringing the valuable prizes on the board—games where Lady Luck often smiles on some fortunate player and presents him with a worth-while prize—will be on the midway.

The carnival will be going at full blast in the evening. The midway is to be erected on the street in front of the Masonic Community Hall.

The Dominion Day dance is always a big feature of the First of July celebration, and always draws a large crowd. The dance is to be held in the Masonic Community Hall, and between dancing and playing the carnival games just outside the hall, the crowd may be assured of an evening filled with fun, frolic, entertainment, and amusement.

Many Laughs In This Great Comedy

"Nothing But the Truth" Will be Shown in Bassano for Second
Time

The second showing of "Nothing But the Truth," the Basano Players' latest comedy, will be given in the Masonic Community Hall, Bassano, on Saturday evening of this week, June 22.

Those who have not already seen the play will have this second and last opportunity of enjoying one of the best comedies which has ever been shown to a Basano audience.

"Nothing But the Truth" is more than funny—it's a hand-ful of laughs, and besides it's a splendid bit of amateur acting.

The play has a fine plot, easy to follow, and has many humorous incidents and laugh-provoking domestic complications. The story is about Bob Bennett, a young business man who, in order to aid his sweetheart in collecting for a charity fund, makes a bet of $10,000 that he can tell the truth for twenty-four hours.

He thought it would be easy, but he discovered that telling the truth was the most difficult thing imaginable, and it gets him into all kinds of trouble with his friends, his sweetheart, and his business partners—but he wins the bet.

The Rosemary Ladies Social Club met with Mrs. W. J. Park, with fourteen members present. After

Dr. Keith Leads In Golf Competition

Brooks, Gleichen, and Bassano
Golfers Play Eighteen Holes
Over Brooks Course

The first round of the Calgary Herald Cup competition in District No. 11 finished with Dr. W. F. Keith, of Bassano, leading the field with an 87, and W. Cory, of Brooks, two strokes behind with an 89. One stroke behind Cory were J. Maheson of Gleichen, and W. J. Smith of Bassano, tied for third place, each finishing in a card of 90 for the 18 holes.

It was a day of poor golf. None of the leading players were at their best, and although several played well for nine holes, they had high scores for the other nine. Keith made a poor start with a 47 for the first nine, but came back with a good 49. E. P. Currie was out with "off" and Art Hawkshaw was not playing his usual good form at the start but settled down to shoot a 42 for the last nine holes.

It was an ideal day for golf, and the Brooks course was in good condition. The Brooks Golf Club showed a very friendly hospitality toward the visiting players, and the ladies of the club served lunch at the club house.

The second round of the district tournament will be played at Gleichen on next Sunday, June 22, and the final round at Bassano on Sunday, June 23.

Bearcats Win Ball Tournament

Bassano Team Wins from Arrowwood
In Final Game After Defeating
Meadowbrook in First Round

The Bassano Bearcats came from behind in the sixth inning to trounce the Arrowwood team 10-5 in the final game of the baseball tournament held in Bassano on Wednesday of this week, June 18.

The Bearcats were trailing Arrowwood 1-5 in the seventh frame when a timely hit by Knight with a couple of men on bases and two down started the Bearcats off on a batting spree. They tied the game in that inning, and in the eighth they outplayed the ball all over the field and counted five more runs before the end of the inning.

Arrowwood's crack pitcher, offered the best he had, but the Bearcats sluggers clouted the horsehide for a large collection of hits.

The line-up was as follows: Arrowwood: Norton c.; Smith c.f.; Aldred p.; Pittman r.f.; Miller 2b.; Thompson 1b.; Welch 1b.; Mason 3b.; E. Norton s.s.

Bassano: Simpson s.s.; Leonard 1b.; Knight c.f.; Roach 1b.; Ralph Burrows 2b.; Rodbourne r.f.; Margaret 3b.; LePage c.; Bulmer p.

After pitching against Meadowbrook in the afternoon Bulmer weakened in the final game against Arrowwood, and when he got into trouble in the 5th inning C. Conley was put on the mound.

In the first game of the tournament Arrowwood defeated Queenstown 10-3, and in the second game the Bearcats won from Meadowbrook 7-6.

The line-up for the Meadowbrook-Bassano game was as follows: Meadowbrook: Gray s.s.; Quarell c.; McArthur 1b.; Wilson 2b.; Brown 1b.; James r.f.; Bushman r.f.; Hogue p.; McMillan 3b.

Bassano: Simpson s.s.; Rodbourne c.f.; Roach 1b.; Kiltz 1b.; Ralph Burrows 2b.; LePage c.; Heryford 3b.; Bulmer p.

Leonard substituted for Heryford in the fifth inning.

The weather was not the best kind of baseball weather, but a strong breeze was blowing, and the temperature was not very warm. A small crowd turned out to see the games.

BANKS SHOULD NOT CLOSE AT NOON

The closing of the two Bassano banks during the noon hour, from 12 o'clock till 1:00, would cause considerable inconvenience to the public, and we raise a voice in protest of this proposal.

A short time ago the two banks decided on the noon hour closing, and they plan to put it into effect on Monday, June 22. The new ruling will go into force on this date unless strong protest is made and the plan abandoned.

As reason for the noon hour closing the banks say it will be more convenient for the staffs to take this lunch hour all at the same time, and enable all members of the staffs to be on duty during the period of banking hours.

The noon hour closing plan would perhaps be a nice thing for the bank staffs, but it would be the cause of some inconvenience to the public, particularly to farmers who desire to transact some business in the bank during noon hour before business hours are over.

The banks close at noon the C.P.R. employees are paid twice a month, and many of them cash their cheques at noon the following day. The noon hour is the only time during banking hours when these men can visit the bank. If the banks close at noon the C.P.R. employees will go to the stores to cash their pay cheques, but if these employees will also go to the stores to cash their cheques, and the merchants will be doing the work of the banks while the bank staffs are having lunch and listening to the noon hour radio program.

The banks enjoy many privileges in the way of cooking hours and holidays. They open at 10 a.m. and close early at 2:00 p.m., and on Saturdays from 9:30 till 12:00 noon. They take over public holidays on the calendar including many that are not public holidays.

Perhaps the present lunch hour arrangement is not very convenient for the bank staffs, but they already enjoy many privileges, and they should not expect to get all of them at the expense of inconvenience to their customers.

VILLAGE PORTRAIT

(by Thomas W. Duncan)

He was the half-wit of the backwood town.
The butt of every lover's jest. His shack,
Dressed in a heap south of the railroad track
Near Perkin's slough. When winter settled down,
And blizzards swept across the far-flung reaches,
He'd huddle there and feed his fire.

The door
Looked cold. He'd watch the frost crawl on the floor
And slap his numb arms down against his breeches.
He was the half-wit. But he boys soon found
No other knew so well where red hares grew,
Or where the black-crowned walnuts stained the ground.
And when the yellow snafish bit, He knew
The thrush's song in spring, and an deserted
How to trail wild things through a snowy wood.

Taking time while the rains wait for a full head of steam, Engineer H. J. Storey and Fireman J. P. McInnes, who were in the fire and entered the fire box of the engine in taking running repairs of the train, were recently in the engine car on Canadian Pacific engine 270 at Hogg, B.C., recently. They were each awarded 10 merit marks, the railway's recognition of conspicuous merit.

ONE GOOD RECIPE

MARKS A COOK FAMOUS

It is always satisfactory to have a recipe for a dish which finds favor with the family and which can be made either the night before lunch or at noon to serve as a supper. An appetizing recipe follows, and it is also one which is easy to prepare. Casseroles of Ham and Vegetables. 1 cupful of drained peas, 2 cupfuls dried cooked ham, one and a half cupfuls scalloped milk, 1 cupful soft bread crumbs, quarter cupful melted butter, 2 pinches onion, 1 tablespoon chopped parsley, one and a half tablespoon chopped onion, 3 cupful American cheese grated, three small cans of well-seasoned, one-eighth teaspoonful pepper, dash of paprika, 3 eggs.

Pour scalding milk over bread crumbs, add butter, pinches of onion, onion, grated cheese and seasonings. Add well beaten eggs. Put ham and peas in a buttered casserole and pour the milk and cheese mixture over them. Bake about 50 minutes at 350 degrees F.

THINKS AMERICAN

HAD BETTER TO VANISH

American hamlets and small villages may be destined for the discard, but towns of from 1,000 to 10,000 population are doing more business than ever, in the opinion of Dr. C. J. Galpin, of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, U.S. "Although the general trend," he says, "has been for farmers to shift their buying from stores at country cross roads, to hamlets, and in small villages, in large retail trading centres the shift in farmer buying is towns ranging from 1,000 to 10,000 in population is increasing, the trade areas of these towns, increasing the trade, and increasing their purchasing power."

Dr. Galpin's opinion is that the decline of the hamlet and small village is the result both of a decreasing rural population and of the higher standard of farm living in recent years.

A Century Old Song

That fine old song "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep"—a perpetual challenge to basses—was written by Emma Willard, nearly one hundred years ago. Emma, an American poet of note in her day, wrote it on July 14, 1851, after a violent storm at sea during a voyage she made aboard the good ship "Sally," says Thomas F. Madigan in "Word Shadows of the Great." So that the old song is at least a hundred years old before writing about it.

Royal Air Force Is Introducing Fire-proof Clothes and Wings

Fireproof clothes for airmen and fireproof wings for their machines are to be introduced in the Royal Air Force. It is expected that as a result the tragic toll of deaths following airplane crashes will be reduced to a minimum.

A cheap and easily made fireproof solution has been discovered for treating clothes and other fabrics.

It is a mixture of borax and acetic acid, and is said to be so effective that when a four-ounce cotton fabric was treated, it could not be ignited by a naked flame.

The Fabrics Co-ordinating Research Committee has already approved the solution's use.

Device Not Yet Perfected

Michigan Butchers Using Test To Determine Tenderness Of Meat

Housewives now can ask the butcher what degree of tenderness meat has, as the result of an ingenious device, now being tested in Michigan and 24 other agricultural stations.

The device was first tested at the United States Department of Agriculture, at Washington. The apparatus consists of a knife so arranged that it can be drawn through a piece of meat with pressure exerted from a crank. The degree of tenderness then is registered upon a scale.

A Few Reasons Why Manitobans Is Holding Celebration

The enthusiasm with which the people of Manitoba are preparing to celebrate the Diamond Jubilee of the province, on July 15 next, might lead an outsider, unfamiliar with our progress and development, to require proof that the people of this province are to be told that the Province was formally admitted into the Canadian Confederation on July 15, 1870, and that the present generation was showing its pride and satisfaction at what had been accomplished in the sixty-year period.

Outbreaks of
Couturns in 1930

Are Present In Exceptional Numbers and Over Wide Areas

(Kenneth M. King)

The outbreak of couturns was predicted for this spring in material in every serious proportion and over wide areas. Two types of couturns are involved—The Red-backed couturn, which is found on the park belt, and the pale western couturn in a few districts as detailed below. It is important to distinguish between these two kinds, because of a marked difference in means of control. These couturns are present in exceptional numbers, and the early hatching and generally dry conditions of this season are conducive to a heavy rate of damage, although the coyness of the spring has been somewhat unfavourable to the couturns.

Districts Involved.—The Red-backed couturn is found in the generally abundant this year in the bush country, throughout the park belt, and into the adjoining margin of prairie land. It is particularly destructive in gardens and to the broad-leaved crops, though cereals may also be seriously damaged.

The pale western couturn occurs in two areas:—(1) It is extremely abundant this year in south central Alberta, in the Red River valley, the Regina plains, the outback definitely extends from Balcarres, Indian Head and Stathema on the east to Moose Jaw and possibly to Lake and Central Butte on the west. Southwardly, it probably extends to the International Boundary, and as far west as the coast of the Pacific. (2) An outbreak is also expected in extreme western Saskatchewan, especially around Altona, extending possibly to Medicine Hat, on the east, and Maple Creek to the south.

How To Distinguish.—Couturns can be readily distinguished by their soft round bodies, and their habit of cutting off the plants completely at or near the surface of the ground. The other spring crop of similar type of damage is the wireworm, which can readily be distinguished by its smaller, hard, bright shiny yellow body, and the fact that it attacks the seed and lower stem, seldom cutting off the plant completely.

It will be noted that the two types of couturns mentioned may both be abundant in certain districts. The Red-backed couturn may be readily distinguished by the definite colouring—usually a dull red—upon the back, and the distinct line lengthwise of the back. The pale western couturn is almost colourless, except for the slight color given by the food and other contents of the body; it usually has a very grey appearance.

Control Measures.—Red-backed couturn: Poisoned bran bait is a very effective and practical means of control, either in gardens or in large fields, for all couturns of the Red-backed type. The important thing is to catch the fields closely and use the bait in time to save the crop. If a field is ruined, use of the bait will permit immediate re-seeding again. Three things are essential in using

Men Would Rather Suffer Than Do Anything Unconventional

Why is it required in summer time that a gentleman wear his hat? It is required because of the golf links or tennis court, or in the swimming pool.

Dignity demands it, some say. Also, it has always been the mark of a gentleman to wear a coat, no matter how hot the weather, and to keep his hat and bow, or fanning himself violently with straw hat or newspaper.

Sports costumes have emancipated women, so far as summer apparel is concerned. Short sleeves, no collars, light and airy dresses, and the wearing of hats and bow, or fanning himself violently with straw hat or newspaper.

Why do not the men demand the like independence in this matter? Returning sundressers are to be worn beneath the shirt, so that dignity need not be sacrificed when the coat is removed. As an office outfit, the coatless outfit should make for greater comfort, increased efficiency and smoother types. Why not discard the coat, except when formality or comfort demand its use?

Although man never tires of banting the opposite sex for being the slave of fashion, there are good reasons for suspecting that men folk would cast aside the coat for the sake of comfort if it were not for unfashionable. Husband and wife for being too conventional and melt under a heavy coat merely to get the coat of comfort if it were not for unfashionable. New Zealand Trade Commissioner Knows Why Canada Imports

Sausage Caissons

"Until I was in New Zealand in 1926, I could never understand why the Canadians spent so much money in importing sausage caissons from New Zealand," about $70,000 pounds a year. It is now," said Mr. J. W. Collins, New Zealand Trade Commissioner to Canada, at the Auckland Chamber of Commerce luncheon.

"I found the explanation when I landed at Vancouver, and went to a 'coddle' hotel. I was accosted by a 'wall boy, who solicited business in these words, 'Hot Dogs, 10 cents. Good for folks'.

"In my travels through Canada I soon came to realize the enormous production and sale of the so-called 'hot-dog' and I did not at all wonder that it should be so popular. It is a leading stock fair throughout Canada and the United States during the last years. Manitoba cattle have held their own with the best that could be produced anywhere. It is a matter of gratification to the people of Manitoba that her first citizen, his Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, James Duncan McGregor, has taken to the community largely through his success as a breeder of pure-bred cattle.

That success has been due to intelligence, persistence, hard work and a refusal to believe that 'it couldn't be done'.

The story is the same in regard to other phases of farm activity. Who is there among the middle-aged people of Manitoba who does not remember the day when butter from Eastern Canada was considered essential to human existence? Here a quarter of a century ago it was almost impossible to suggest that this Province should manufacture its own butter. Today the Manitoba product is known and appreciated all over Canada, and in many foreign markets.

One shipment in Glasgow, Scotland, now is employing 17,000 men.

CHARLES M. WALTERS, MAKEPEACE FARMER, DIED SATURDAY JUNE 14

Charles M. Walters, Makepeace farmer, died in the Bassano Hospital last Saturday morning, June 14, at the age of 60 years.

Mr. Walters was suffering with pneumonia, and had been a patient in the hospital here since May 15.

Charles Walters had been a resident of Alberta for the past twenty-eight years, coming here from Texas in 1902. He homesteaded in the Neuton district in the early days, and since then has lived in various parts of southern Alberta. He farmed near Retlaw for a number of years, and two years ago moved to the Red River valley near Makepeace.

Charles Walters had many friends in this district, and in other parts of southern Alberta where he is well known, and they deeply regret his death.

Deceased is survived by his sorrowing widow, one son, Jesse, three brothers, George, of Hussar, and David and White, who reside in the United States; three sisters, Mrs. I. Wilson, of Barnett, Texas, Mrs. L. Parks and Mrs. V. Padon, of Lubbock, Texas.

The funeral was held at 3:00 p.m. Sunday, June 15, from Knox Presbyterian Church. Rev. P. C. McCreas conducted the funeral service. The remains were laid to rest in the Bassano cemetery.
